EDITORIAL

A recent letter to TV GUIDE emphatically stated, "The viewer or parent must be his own censor. The networks have not and CANNOT tell the viewer what he can or must watch." And another agreed, saying, "I resent very much being told . . . that I'm too ad-lebrained to do my own censoring. . . ."

These two television viewers have the right idea, but they should have carried their conclusions one step further. Since the audience definitely is capable of acting as its own censor for TV programs, the same logic can be extended to include all media. Certainly if an individual is wise enough to watch only those TV shows that are good for him, he is equally capable of choosing appropriate reading material.

It is especially important for each person to make this choice for himself, since it is impossible to generalize about what material should be read and what should be avoided. The book that seems obscenely prurient to one reader may be merely amusing to another. Each of us is the best judge of what we should see and hear.

Censorship, no matter what form it takes, is an encroachment on the basic liberty that is guaranteed to us as Americans. And whether the censor is dealing with television, movies, photographs, or reading material, he is doing a gross injustice to all Americans by limiting their freedom of choice. Even though censorship is often cloaked in the guise of good, it brings us one step closer to dictatorship by taking away an important freedom.

Since we are all capable of deciding what we should read and view, we must act now to protect the right to do so. To allow a few individuals, no matter how well meaning, to decide for the majority what information they should be exposed to marks the beginning of fascism. Protect your basic constitutional rights—protect the freedom of all Americans. Write your congressman today and let him know that you will no longer tolerate oppressive censorship laws!

A HANDFUL OF JOY

Among other property, Joy owns a pair of jugs that are works of art and real collectors' items. Experts who inspected them very thoroughly have found them heavy but a delight to handle, each being an exact copy of the other. Highly serviceable, they have a glowing surface that Joy attains through periodic applications of a lather she makes from hot cream!

JUG JUGGLING

Tit twirling and juggling is something Joy is an expert at. She'll also show a guy how to balance them on an upright pole, even if the pole is slippery and wobbles a lot!

BATTLE OF THE BULGES

Battling against this bulging front requires the building up of forces in a spearhead position, to be followed by an in-depth penetration at a given point. Concentrated firepower will soften resistance, bringing the offensive to a very smooth and co-ordinated conclusion.

DOUBLE JOY

Mirror, mirror on the wall—whose fair pair can give a guy a ball? We can see that for ourselves along with Joy, and mirrors don't lie! Reflecting on her twin assets, Joy remembers how often she's seen them mirrored in the shining eyes of an admirer. Any stiff lucky enough to be offered this display might think he's seeing double, but that should not prevent him from rising to the occasion and thanking Joy by giving her all he's got!

HOT ON THE LINE

After putting in her phone and getting a hard look at her bazooms, the telephone man keeps calling her up trying to talk her into letting him install another instrument—one with an extension to it!

Head Girl

At times Joy likes her hair out of the way, a trick taught her by the same guy who showed her that in a sticky situation two heads can be better than one!

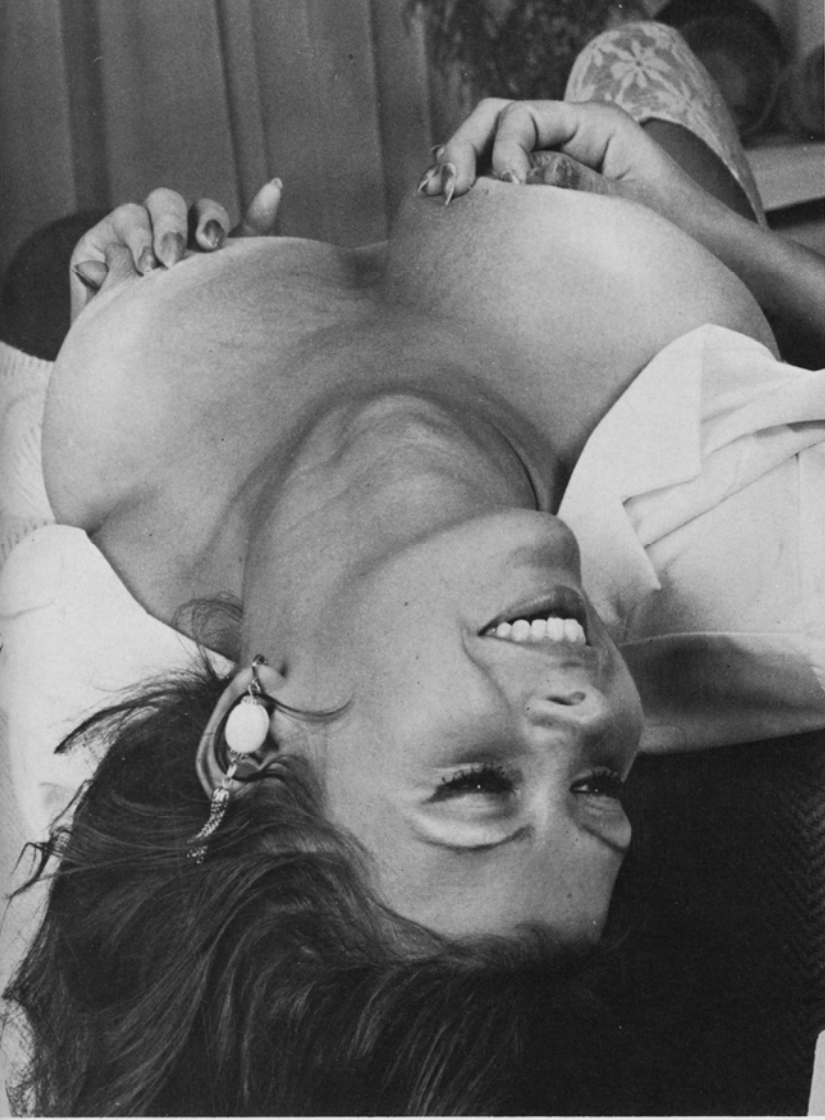

House Call

Any guy Joy cares for can expect her to make a house call if he's really down. Her white coat contains all the medicine she needs to get him up again!

NIBBLING ON A STEM

Joy loves to relax with a stem between her lips. She likes them to be long and firm and able to take a lot of her nibbling. She'll tickle the back of her throat with it and suck all the juice out before reaching for another!

JOYSTICK

Pool is a game Joy really enjoys. When a guy brings his stick over, she first likes to just watch him shoot by himself a bit, but then she'll get on the stick herself, calling each shot as it comes!

BOOB BAUBLES

Joy doesn't need trinkets and beads to make her boobs look valuable, but they do accent the fact that hers is a treasure chest. Many men have sought it, some pirates even made a grab for it, but Joy makes sure she has the say as to who gets his hands on it. If he's Mr. Right, then she'll share everything and he can dig in with both hands and run his fingers over a bust fortune so big that it's fit for a king!

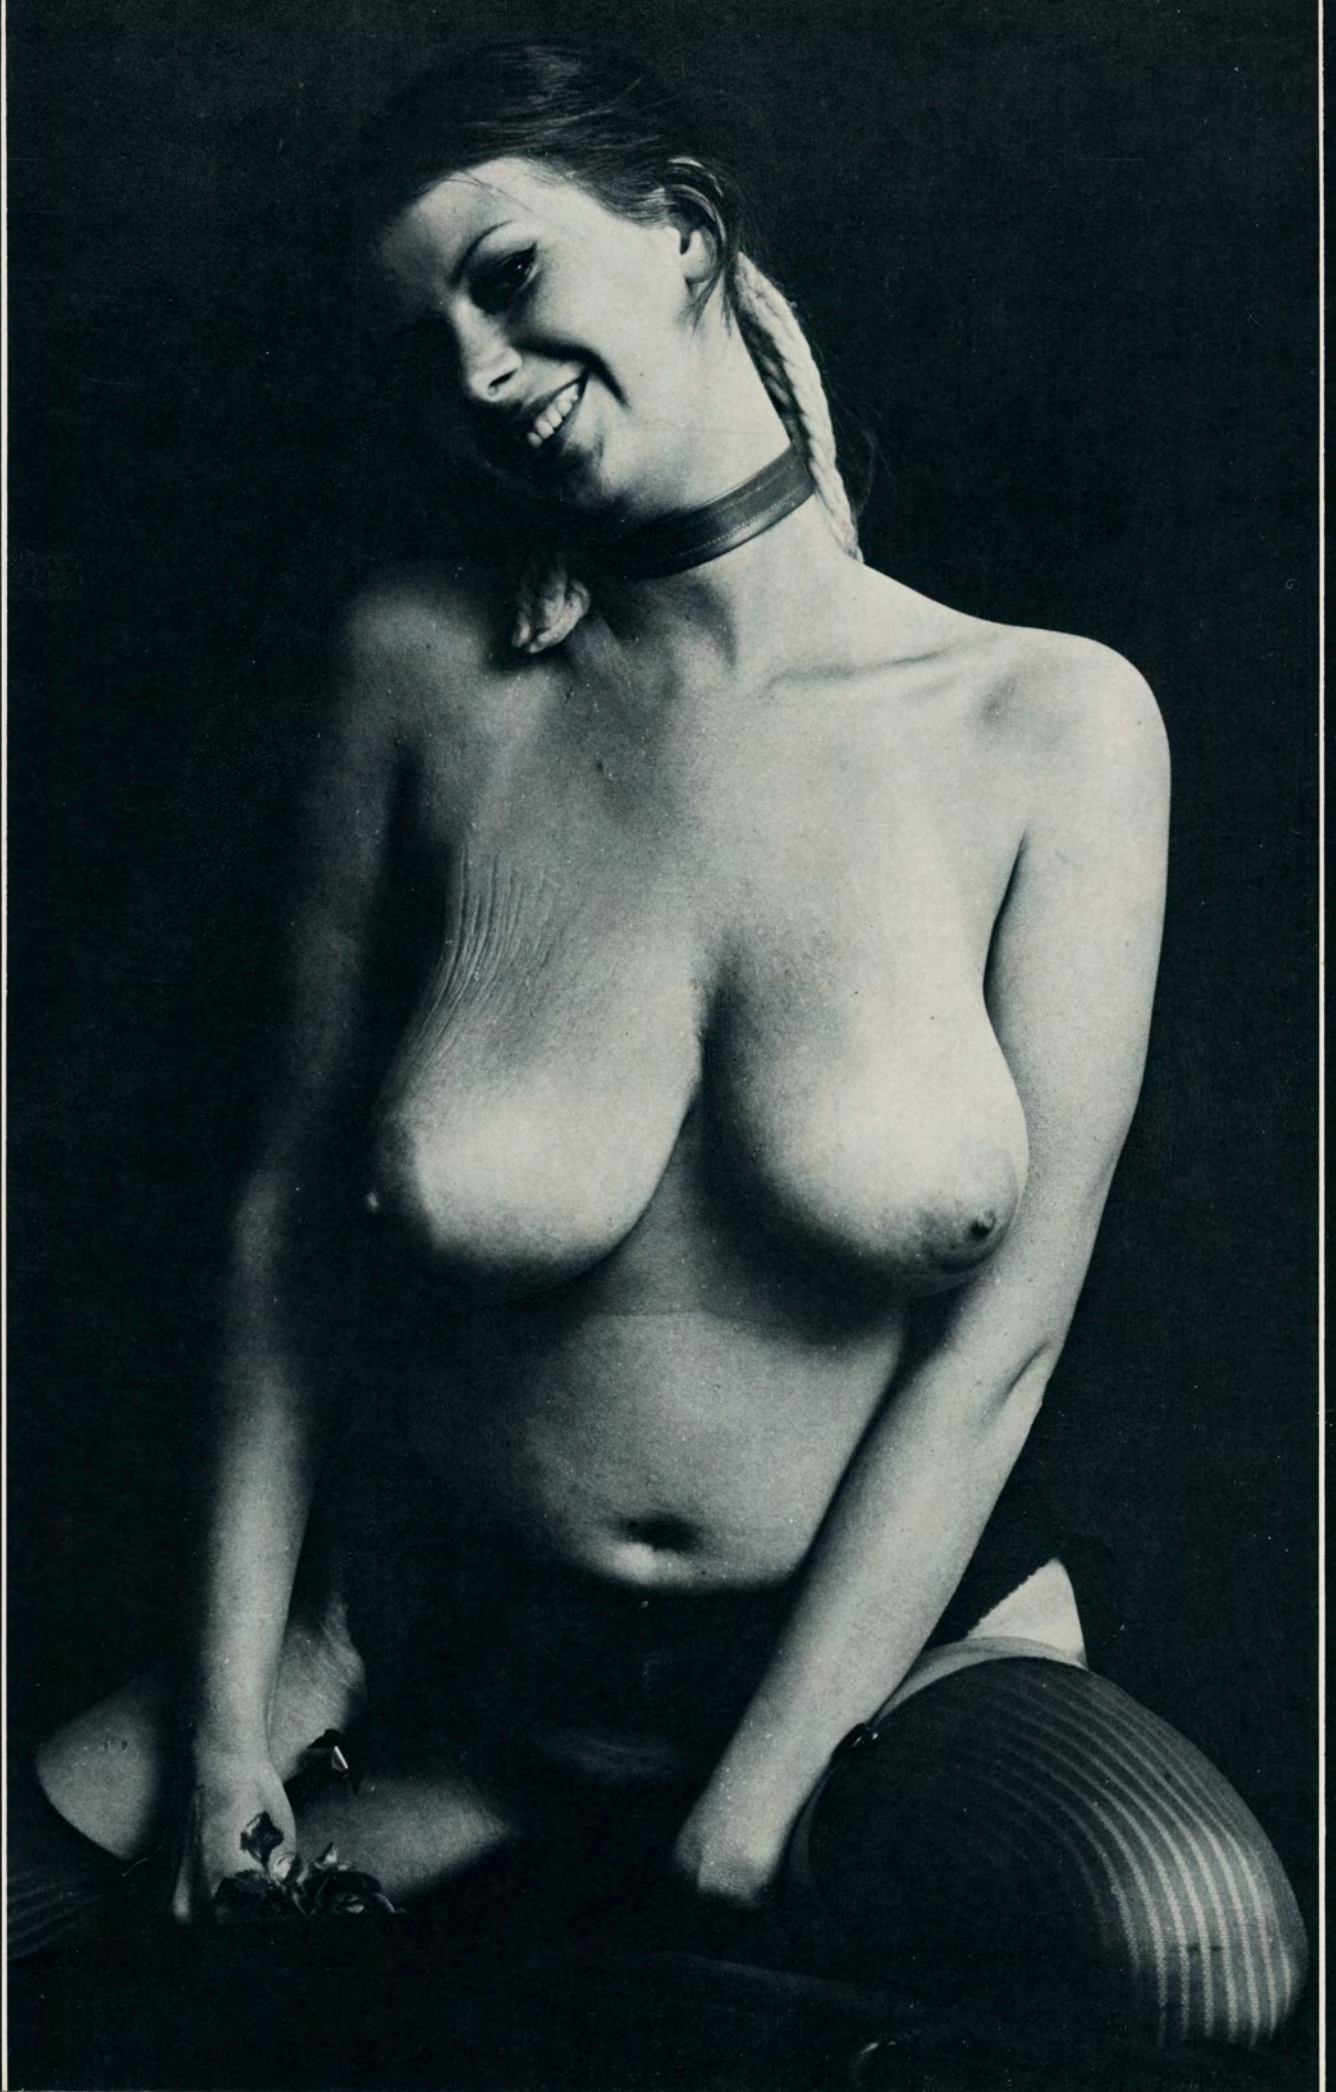

JOY'S ROSE BUSH

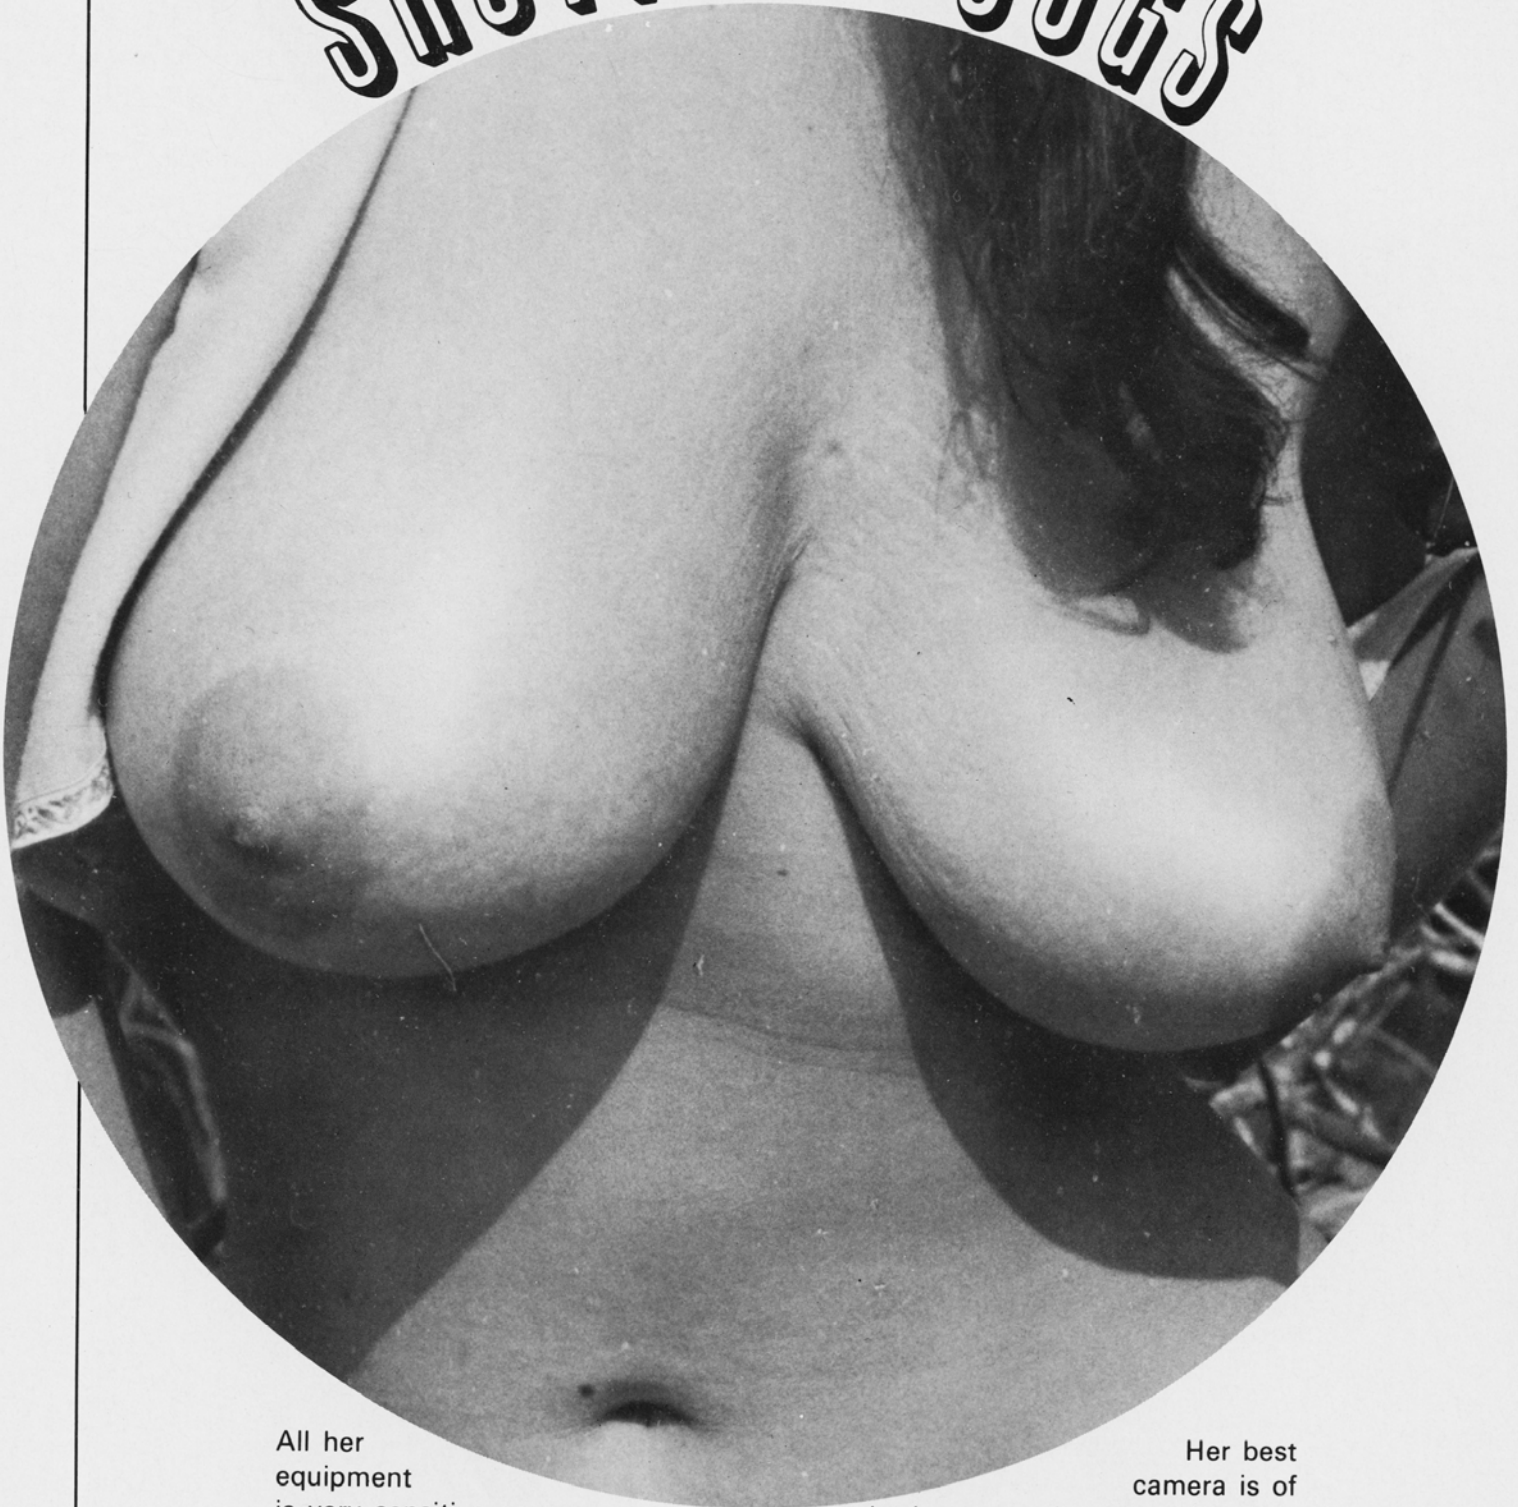

A bush that is in flower the year 'round—
it has a blossom with soft petals
that eagerly part for any busy bee which seeks to buzz into the soft folds and drink it dry of nectar.

SHUTTER - JUGS

All her equipment is very sensitive so anyone using it should remember that the slightest finger pressure can easily set off her shutter!

Her best camera is of the box type. Joy keeps it handy and cocked at all times so that she'll not miss out on any kind of action she can focus in on!
